Mountains, trails, the same old notes,
Step by step you go,
Rustling wind, a glance ahead
To the new bends of the road

chorus

Running off to nowhere, clouds are running after us,
And snow - a solid wall
Step - breathe, step - breathe, there's no path and no two roads,
And you - you follow me

I am free just like a bird
On the mountain ridge.
The wind echoes, whispers softly,
Calling me afar again.

Running off to nowhere, clouds are running after us,
And snow - a solid wall
